Soothe your skin, feel luxurious

KELLIE ANN ZUPET

Delicious-smelling, body-soothing goodies add a little bit of luxury to the daily shower.

Nuxe Rêve de Miel shower cream, $29 for 200 ml.

Dead skin is banished by a combination of finely ground peach pits and orange peel then hydrated with wild fruit oil, wood oil and honey beads. The experience is softening and smoothing as well as safe for the most sensitive skin. It is available at Shoppers Drug Mart Beauty Boutiques at University Square, Dundas and Headon Road, and Upper Middle Road in Burlington.

Ahava Dermud Moisturizing Shower Cream, $25 for 200 ml.

You can't possibly have more fun or get a better clean than by playing in the mud, Dead Sea mud to be exact. It's combined with aloe vera and hypophea oil in a hypoallergenic formula that leaves skin silky smooth. It is available exclusively at Pharmasave, 155 James St. S.

Olay Age Defying Body Wash, $5.99 for 295 ml.

Olay's Age Defying line contains moisturizers and vitamin niacin to help combat dryness and fight aging. It leaves the skin feeling moisturized and squeaky clean. Is is widely available.

The Body Shop White Musk Sumptuous Silk Shower Gel, $15 for 250 ml.

The silky, soap free gel releases a sensuous scent as it gently cleans with a creamy, moisturizing lather containing musk mal-low extract and organic honey. Scent can be layered using other products in the line. It is available at The Body Shop in Lime Ridge Mall and Mapleview Shopping Centre, Burlington.
